cess comes through the cooperation of the ladies," he said, "I know that you have to put up with a lot. You are going to have to put up with more through the new duties which may be imposed on your husbands in civilian defense.

We are going to put a lot of new duties on the firemen." Judge Sheely the borough council for a new siren to avoid confusion. This time, things are going to be different from the last war.

"Standby" Company

"Civilian defense forces will not be mobilized until after the signal. Air travel is so fast that a warning would not come in time. We will have to mobilize for whatever needs to be done after a raid. We are going to call on the firemen more and more and I know that you are going to be there, ready to do a job.

Judge Sheely praised the fire company for its short wave communications system and said that communications would play an important part in civilian defense.

Another point stressed was the formation of a "standby" fire company, to serve Gettysburg in the event that regular firemen are called to some other city. He said some of the fire trucks and firemen might be called to York in case firemen from that city were summoned to Lancaster or Philadelphia should the latter cities be bombed.

Philadelphia, Feb. 9 (A)-Bo Mc-Millin, the Philadelphia Eagles' new football coach, made it plain today there'll be some changes made in the national football league club. McMillin, who was named to succeed Earle (Greasy) Neale in a surprice move yesterday, said he hasn't ha nuch time to devote to longrange planning, but that he definitely considers the Eagles a threat to regain the NFL title next season.

Philadelphia won the league championship in 1948 and 1949 but slumped last season and wound up third in its division with a 6-6 record, the same Mark McMillin achieved as coach of the Detroit Lions last year.

There were many who claimed the Eagles, once one of the most feared football machines of all time, were "over the hill," that the club's star players were too old to win championships.

McMillin doesn't think so. "Why," said Bo in his soft Texas drawl, "I've heard of players who are 32 and 33 who are still pretty fair football players."

"Why, Sammy Baugh is 35, and he sho gave us hell last year," Mc-

Millin added. Bo said the Eagles have "a lot of good, fast backs." Some of 'em were hurt last year and ought to be a lot better this year.

Among players in this category he listed Clyde (Smackover) Scott, Steve Van Buren, Jim Parmer and

LAYNE FAVORED IN SCRAP WITH BRION TONIGHT BE

New York, Feb. 9 (A) - Utah's Rex Layne is out to show the world his stunning upset of Jersey Joe Walcott was no mistake.

If the curly haired farm boy from Lewistown, Utah, hurdles Cesar Brion of Argentina tonight at Madison Square Garden he will have a sound selling point.

Brion, who went the route in a Decker losing battle with Joe Louis and has Starry dropped only four of 36 pro fights, Kemper is a rugged test for 22-year-old Rex.

Their 10-round bout, starting at 10 p.m., gets full radio and tele- Adams Elec. vision network coverage. A crowd Cole of 8,500 and receipts of $35,000 are expected.

Layne leaped out of nowhere into Hubbard the No. 4 spot among the heavy- Bowling weights by his surprising win over old Jersey Joe. But he needs more than one important victory before he can talk about fighting Champion Ezzard Charles.

They liked Rex's courage the Knox night he raked Jersey Joe with Cole right hand body punches, despite a O'Connor badly cut left eye. They liked the way Hummer he bulled inside, carrying the fight Knox to cagey Joe, noted for a right hand sneak punch. They cheered the blood spotched youngster when he got the unanimous decision. Now comes Brion, a kid like himself with limited experience. Cesar has had only 36 fights. Only 20 of them were in this country. He lost to Louis, Roland La Starza, Vern Mitchell and Bernie Reynolds but reversed the defeats by Mitchell and Reynolds. In fact his sensational one-punch knockout of Reynolds started him on his way to the big time.

Brion has stopped 17 of 36 foes, just below .500. Rex bombed out 20 of 30 for a fine .667 average. Despite these fine KO records, most experts expect the bout to go the limit. Layne, a 5 to 1 underdog against Walcott November 24, now is a 5 to 8 favorite. The pick here

Sports Roundup

New York, Feb. 9 (A)—Abe Saper stein freely admits that his Harlem Globetrotters aren't by any means the best basketball team in the world and that they win because the playing rules aren't what they ought to be. . . . Those may be amazing statements from a guy whose business is the Harlem Globetrotters but Saperstein is no sap. . . . He's a man noted for doing amazing things and getting away with it

Abe's contention is that basketball has been dominated by rulesmakers who like the wide-open, high scoring style. . . . That helps the Globetrotters because their style is based on skill and team-play and the fans like to see it, but it doesn't help the game in general to have the scores come too easily. . . . "Part of the thrill in watching sports is being able to jump up and cheer for your team." Abe argues. "In baseball or football you can stand outside and tell how the game is going by the cheers. You can't do that in basketball when one team scores and 18 seconds later they score at the other end of the floor.'

POINTLESS POINTS

Continuing in a serious vein, Saperstein says: "There's something wrong with the game. There's no premium on skill and finesse. Everything favors the point-getter, the big man, and the referees protect . There has been a sort of

SHORT CHANGES

Saperstein's suggestions, boiled down from several thousand words, are: Restore the center jump; widen the four lanes to give "the ordinary six-footer" a chance against the big man under the basket; stop calling fouls in the back court, and call them closer under the basket.

"Give the defensive player a little leeway under the basket," he argues. "It's a game where body contact is natural, so allow him a little . . . then the player would have to decide which side to cut man. Every goal would mean some- state Senate Wednesday. thing.

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.

It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regu-
